

Sunday February 14, 2010

Youth Ambassadors celebrated this special valentine Sunday with the youth of O Kroch Methodist Church near Kampong Thom, Cambodia. The expressions of love, joy, friendship, and affection were mutually shared among all of us.

This is what you will see if you were here with us. Our youth gave friendship bracelets to each person almost 120 people mostly children and youth as visible expression of our love and friendship. Guess what our friends gave us? Fresh coconuts from their land.

Isn't this an incredible experience of how God's love ought to be shared. We are all blessed with our unique gifts by God. Whenever we come together and share our gifts with each other, it feels like heaven has come down to earth. It is the kingdom of God realized amongst us. By the way I forgot about the chocolate that we all enjoyed after church.
